

Fall 2020 General Education Assessment Data

Concord University's general education assessment process is designed to sustain and strengthen student learning across the core courses as well as programmatic progression. In Fall 2020, a total of 180 distinct courses assessed general education outcomes from one of the four University Learning Goals. Results from the assessment are below as well as a comparison for the last three semesters. Data for specific general education categories has been submitted to department chairs for faculty review and continuous improvement.
