Doctor of Divinity

FRED BERTHOLD, JUNIOR, you have answered the highest callings of service to your fellow-men, the ministry and teaching. Born in Missouri, educated at Dartmouth and the University of Chicago, your record as a scholar includes a degree summa cum laude with distinction in psychology, election to Phi Beta Kappa, and a number of other awards and academic honors. Your thoughtful and learned writings on religious and philosophical subjects have helped many to make their lives more meaningful than they might otherwise have been. As Dean of the William Jewett Tucker Foundation at Dartmouth College, you serve as chaplain and spiritual adviser to three thousand college men. You are well aware of the temptations of college institutions that take their names from the seasons -- Fall-Football, Winter-Ice, and Spring-Green -- and you and your Tucker Foundation associates have helped to counter the emphasis upon these earthly pleasures by furthering moral and spiritual values in college life. Your service now is international as well as intramural, for we note that under your leadership the Tucker Foundation has established a program to advance the cause of international understanding by encouraging college graduates to serve as teachers in underdeveloped nations. <sup>True</sup> ~~The~~ servant of God and of your fellow-men, Concord is pleased to be able to honor you by conferring upon you her degree of Doctor of Divinity.
