

CONCORD UNIVERSITY

DOCTOR OF HUMANITIES, HONORIS CAUSA

Vincent Cali, you have achieved outstanding success in your career, and have established a strong history of service to your profession, to the community, and to Concord University.

After earning a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree from Concord in 1970, you accepted a position with the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Continuing your education, you received an MBA from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

During more than three decades as a management consultant, you have worked in a variety of industries, serving clients domestically and internationally in both the private and public sectors.

Recruited by Deloitte & Touche, you spent over 32 years with the global professional services firm as a professional and a partner until your recent retirement. You held a number of positions including Consulting Managing Director, National Managing Director, and member of the Deloitte & Touche USA Board of Directors. Your last duty was as Deputy to the Global CEO of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu.

You have made significant contributions of time and leadership toward improving and strengthening your profession. Among these are being a fellow and past chairman of the Institute of Management Consultants; past vice chairman of the International Council for Management Consulting Institutes; and a member of the advisory board of the Journal of Management Consulting. Additionally, you are a former member of the Panel of Arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association.

As a chairperson of Concord's Business Advisory Council, you returned to your alma mater and contributed your knowledge and experience to assist future graduates in their educational and professional pursuits. In the area of community involvement, your service extends to Greenlights for NonProfit Success in Austin, Texas.

For achieving a place of prominence in your career and for working to better your profession and the community, Concord University confers upon you, Vincent Cali, the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.
